Library Gets Many New Books

Volumes On Medicine, Banking And Subsidiary Subjects Of Literature Courses Are Received

The first three numbers of the Voca tional Monograph Series, published weekly by the American Education, have been received by the University Library. They are of interest both to men and women in the colleges, as they deal with "The Profession of Medicine," "The Presbyterian Church and Investment Banking as a Career."

The course is named for Miss Brown, who has been in American literature for next year. are: "Some Contemporary American", by Boyden; "Origin of Mark Twp", by Brooks; "Literature of America", by Dunn; "Glorious Political", by Morris; "Prom Whitsman to Sandburg in American Verse", by Mitchell. Several books which have been recently received by the library are:
"Our Time," by A. L. Stewart; "So-Stewart's Birthday," by Martin; "Studer National Development of China", by Stuart. Other books recently acquired by the library are: "The American University Quarterly
(Continued from Page One)

Next Concert Of Singers Will Be At Rust Hall on May 22d.
The American University Quartet, consisting of four musicians during the past week, its appearances being made at the Oxford Pal-lower School and the Ward College. The Gardeen Junior High School in May a-
—(the occasion being the opening of new building and at the Mother's Day Service in Hunt). Recently, the Quartet, whose appearance at the Quarant on May 22d will be made at Rust Hall on Wednesday, May 25.

Dr. W. M. Gewehr
Heads History Department

(Continued from Page One)

The American University Quartet
sold fifteen copies of their programs
during the past week, its appearances being made at the Oxford Pal-
lower School and the Ward College. The Gardeen Junior High School in May a-
—(the occasion being the opening of
new building and at the Mother's Day Service in Hunt). Recently, the Quartet, whose appearance at the Quarant on May 22d will be made at Rust Hall on Wednesday, May 25.

Dr. W. M. Gewehr
Heads History Department

(Continued from Page One)

The American University Quartet
sold fifteen copies of their programs
during the past week, its appear-
ances being made at the Oxford Pal-
lower School and the Ward College. The Gardeen Junior High School in May a-
—(the occasion being the opening of
new building and at the Mother's Day Service in Hunt). Recently, the Quartet, whose appearance at the Quarant on May 22d will be made at Rust Hall on Wednesday, May 25.