showing me how to do things.
Tell mamma to send me some heavy rocks,6 woollen, arrow shoots,
to send other ones all up.
How Joe, Jack, and the tennis court getting on.
By the time I get home I will be a pretty "curly" fellow.
Have you heard from Mr. Mill
Willoughby yet.
My tooth has been aching like but.
I wish I could stay up here all summer.
We have strawberries now a great deal.
Give my love to Nora, Wib
Lizzy, Delphina,
Graham T.
Spencer Mussey.
They all went to a funeral yesterday and when they came through all they talked about was how beautiful the funeral was etc.

And if you tell Mr. Crane anything strange he says "I want to know." And they all they say "Ije" instead of you.

Jeanie says she'll meet him when you tell him.

They are strict as lightning on Friday.

Mrs. Crane said this morning she had got asked out to eat strawberries today, but she thought she couldn't do it as that wouldn't be having her own pleasure on Sunday.

Herrmann, the colored man, likes me because I am from the south, and always
Then I stow the milk and ice it.
Then we have breakfast, after which post we go to work.
Dinner at 12.
To work again until 4 when we milk cows etc. called chores.
Supper and to bed.
I drink a glass of milk every meal time.
We have potatoes, milk, and pork.
I am getting as big and sturdy as I can be.
I haven't seen but one pretty girl up here and she is half French.
The French are just like the colored people down South. Jennie, the French boy, and myself have got 2 traps after elk and ven which can catch the most rats.
The people up here are busy as everything.

Dear Papa,

Probably you will think it funny that my last Sunday Letter did not get mailed until Friday. But they did not have time to go back until then.

Thursday I mowed grass.
Wendesday I mowed grass.

Wendesday hayed.
Thursday did jobs.
Friday went to Middlebury.

Saturday hoed corn.

I get up at 3:30 or 4 o'clock and clean out the stable feed the horses and water them.

Then drink the 3 cows.
